STATEMENT ON 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF APPOINTMENT AS CHANCELLOR OF ADOLF HITLER

The Association of Jewish Refugees (AJR) wishes to stress the importance of recognising the 75th anniversary of the appointment as Chancellor of Adolf Hitler on 30 January 1933.

Andrew Kaufman, Chairman of the Association of Jewish Refugees (AJR), said:

“While the AJR continually strives to commemorate the victims of the Holocaust, we must also stress the importance of recognising and learning about the events that enabled Nazi Germany to rise to power and that led to the Holocaust. This painful and macabre anniversary reminds us all of the importance of combating racism, intolerance and anti-Semitism.”
